Dedication

For the past four years, La Habra High School has stood as a symbol of progress and workmanship to the surrounding community. Of course, this school could not have been built without the cooperation of many persons and agencies. Equally important to the progress made have been the staff, the faculty, and the board of trustees. Out of all those who have helped mold La Habra High into the creditable institution that it is today, we, the publications class, have chosen one who we believe stands as a symbol of its success. We have chosen a person who has been devoted to La Habra High and its students for the past four years. Because of his dedication to us, we have chosen to dedicate this, the 1957-58 HIELAN, to our principal, Mr. Pray, because of your loyalty, devotion, and achievements in behalf of La Habra High School the students, and the faculty, we dedicate this, the 1957-58 HIELAN, to you.

One aspect of Mr. Pray's devotion to La Habra is seen in his actions with the students. No student on the La Habra campus feels, at any time, that he is unwelcome in the principal's office. Mr. Pray is ready to give worthwhile advice to the student who asks for it. This feeling of warmth is also extended to the faculty at La Habra, and it is plainly evident that there is a strong bond of friendship between them and Mr. Pray.

While relaxing from school, Mr. Pray enjoys a wholesome family life with his wife and five children, often taking time to enjoy his favorite sport, skiing.

Mr. Pray enjoys skiing at Snow Valley with daughter, Pam.

Dear Highlanders:

As another year nears conclusion, I am glad to express commendation and appreciation to all on the La Habra High School campus. The teamwork of faculty, students and parents has made La Habra a truly happy high school. The good results we are already receiving regarding the first graduating class from colleges and universities, as well as from employers, testify to the effective learning that is taking place.

We are glad for the effort each one of you is making. We hope you in turn will be grateful for the inspiration and support you have received as a member of a strong and well established union district. We hope that with the obvious fine progress being made on physical facilities, we may always strive for a program of spiritual and intellectual development second to none. On behalf of our Board of Trustees and their administrative officers, permit me to express our very best wishes now and through the years ahead.

Cordially yours,
Stanley Warburton

Though this graduating class is the second in the short history of L.H.H.S., it is the first to spend four years on this campus. Your administration, faculty, and staff are proud to have worked with each of you as you have progressed from freshmen to seniors.

In thinking of you as the "first" to spend four years as Highlanders, we hope you will meet the many future "firsts" with courage, strength, and judgment. We hope to have trained you to undertake these challenges. You have carried L.H.H.S. well along its path to an established school — we anticipate your continued support and pride as L.H.H.S. alumni in college, at work, and in society. The record you achieve as citizens will reflect the attitudes and habits you began at L.H.H.S. We hope your future will be an inspiration to all those who follow you as Highlanders.

You have our very best in the important years to come!

Sincerely,

Walter J. Pray

On these two pages are the people who handle the affairs of business and maintenance on the La Habra High School campus. The bookstore has kept supplies on hand for our school necessities during the year. The nurse has always been available when someone comes around with a stomach ache or a cold. The attendance supervisors have done their best to keep the students in school, and happy, and we can always find the helpful secretaries in the office ready to solve our problems. At lunch and after school the ladies at the snack bar are there to serve us food and tell us not to crowd. Not least, but last, are the custodians whose job it is to keep our campus clean and in order.

We owe much to these friends of ours and to them we say
THANK YOU

In its second season with the Sunset League, the LHHS Varsity team recovered with a win in the league. The team had eleven players, five transfer players who turned in a good season, and players moved from last year's Bee team. Head Coach John Craven, who replaced last year's Head Coach Bob Rohrer, was assisted by back coach Pat O'Donnell and end coach Tex Wallis in a season of good playing. However with several players coming from other schools there was the problem of co-ordination. The award of outstanding back was received by all league, first string fullback Harvey Sims, and the award of outstanding lineman was presented to second string, all league guard, Bob Lauterborn.

With cake sales and class meetings, the Freshmen caught on to the rhythm of class activities. As newcomers to La Habra High School, they are proud to have won first place in the P.T.A. drive last fall. Their spring activities included a barbeque, Freshman dances, and a surprise for the seniors. They have made a successful start at La Habra High.

The Freshman council, led by their cabinet, met every Thursday to plan class activities.

Sophomore Class

Bill Dickenson
President

In listing the activities of the Sophomore class of 1957-58 we find that they started the year off by selecting their class rings, in which the Starfire style was chosen by an overwhelming majority. The Sophomores showed tremendous school spirit at all of the pep rallies. Their dance, which was held in May, was also another one of the many accomplishments.

To plan activities for their class the Sophomore cabinet met every other week.

Dick Evans
President

In presenting the Junior class of 1958, we would like to mention just some of the things of which they are very proud. Under the direction of class officers and class advisers, the Junior class had the fun of playing host and hostess to the Senior class for the Senior playnight. With the planning of the Junior-Senior prom came the cupcake sales put on by the Junior class girls. Junior class assemblies were called and, with a large attendance, many plans were made for the year. We salute the Junior class of 1958 and the graduating class of 1959.

The Junior class cabinet under president Dick Evans planned their year of 1958 with many wonderful ideas and plans.

Highlander Dances

Highlander dances were significant successes this year, with the planning of Janice Schaeffer and the support of the Student Body. Remember the Welcome Dance, our first Homecoming, the annual Sweetheart Ball, the ever-popular Christmas Formal, and the Highland Fling, topped off by the Annual Signing Dance, and the Junior-Senior Prom.

Christmas Formal

As a supporter of the United States Marines' "Toys for Tots," program this year, La Habra High's "Christmas Gift Formal" was again a tremendous success. Everyone brought a gift for a small child as part of the admission. Since the dance was a girl date, a large crowd attended. The decorations featured blue and white streamers centered around a large white Christmas tree with blue bulbs. The gym lights were shaded blue, also. The Fullerton J. C. Hornets provided the music.

The backbone of U. M. High's school spirit during the year was the Pep Club. Members lined up for all the games and cheered up the teams. Many schools can't imagine having on its fine school spirit and the way it pulls for the teams no matter what. The white gloves worn by the girls were something new and very effective.

Song and Yell Leaders

This year's song and yell-leaders introduced new customs to La Habra High School. One was the terrific pep rallies held at noon in the gym. There were yelling contests between the classes, and the losing class had its president wear a sign saying, "My Class has poor Spirit." An original idea introduced by the song and yell leaders was the use of two outfits, one for games, and one for pep-rallies. Also they introduced to La Habra High its first mascot, a Scottie dog called Tom-O-Shanter

Welcome Home - Alumni

... by the danceable music of The Notables.

The Homecoming activities this past year at La Habra High School proved to be both joyful and entertaining. These festivities took place on the evening of November 1, and were ushered in by the introduction of the La Habra Highlander's bagpipe band, which made its first appearance at the football game. The Highlander football team won its first Homecoming game against Newport Harbor High School 13-0. After the game, the Homecoming dance took place in the gym with couples dancing to the music of the Notables. The alumni and the Homecoming queen Anna Marie Garibay and her four attendants were the honored guests at a wonderful dance to be remembered by all.

Last year's yell leaders returned, to help cheer the team on.

Highland Fling

The theme of this year's Highland Fling was "The First Day of Spring". The students danced under the watchful eye of a 12 foot long butterfly which was passed over the King and Queen's throne. Marshall Cramington presided the dance. He made for the announcement. Punch and cookies were served those attending. As in the past the Fling was a success.

Leonard Blanchard, President

The Senior class of 1958 was a class with many firsts. Starting as Freshmen at the new La Habra High School, it was the first class to complete four years. As a Junior class it was the first to put on the Junior-Senior Prom, and it was the first Senior class at La Habra High School to have two semi-finalists in the National Merit Scholarship Tests, a distinction of which the class was very proud.

Under the leadership of Senior Class President Leonard Blanchard, the class of 1958 had a very interesting year. Starting off by winning the Student Body Card drive, they were rewarded with a play night. Later on in the year the faculty-varsity basketball game was sponsored by the Senior class. This also proved to be a worthwhile activity.

The seniors rounded out the year with the graduation ceremonies which were held in the La Habra High School stadium.

Swan Song

As the 1958 HIELAN comes to an end (until the Summer Supplement), we hope the readers will stop to think about all the people who, in cooperation with the publications class, helped this book become a reality.

We want to thank Mr. Walter Pray for his interest in our achievement throughout the year. The faculty certainly deserves many bows from us for the cooperation and helpfulness given us on HIELAN endeavors.

We wish to express our gratitude to Oracam studio of Orange who so efficiently met our photographic needs. Yearbook Committee members who, like last year, helped us for the second year. They and their staffs played an important part in bringing the yearbook to you.

To the advertisers, whose support is essential to the production of this book, we say, "Thank You." Their interest in La Habra High School is apparent as is their wish to deal with the young people of the community by advertising their merchandise in student publications.

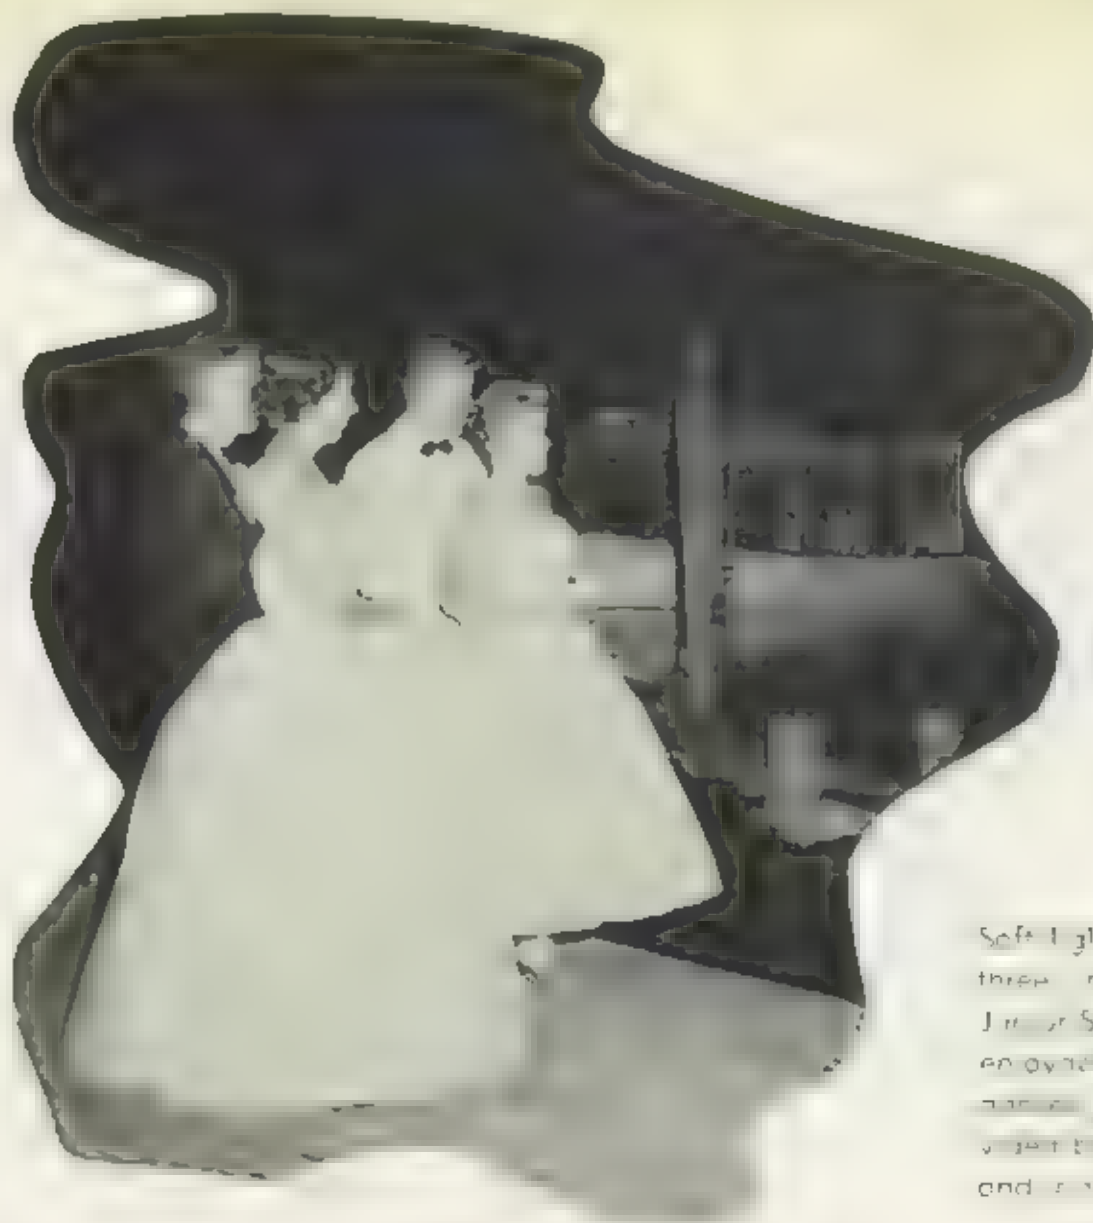

Although the reader rarely stops to realize it all of these people are vital to a successful yearbook. But the success of the book also depends upon the students who buy and read it and keep it for many years. They must like the book and believe it to be a fair representation of the year's activities, exemplifying the Senior Class.

Prom --- 1958

Soft lights, romantic music and gay people—these three ingredients combined to make this year's Junior-Senior Prom at Disneyland one of the most enjoyable high-jinks of the school season. Couples danced to the music of the band which was provided by Disneyland and also enjoyed the free food and prizes offered.

Top 100 Dinner

An effort by the Rotary and Los Compadres Clubs to pay recognition to the select honor students of La Habra resulted in the first annual "Top 100 Banquet", held in the cafeteria this Spring. Nine college presidents attended and the stimulating program was headed by Lawrence T. Cooper, Vice President of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Corporation.

Contestants for the Knobbyest Knees Contest

Combining work and fun was the by-word for this year's Bermuda Day. To add more enjoyment to the day's activities a contest was held at noon in the gym to find the boy with the knobbyest knees.

Accompanied by tears and joys the last assembly marked the close of the school year. A highlight of the assembly was the presentation of awards to outstanding Seniors. Mother - Daughter Banquet

With a lovely wait the evening continued.

Charming mothers were the guests of their daughters at the Mother-Daughter Banquet sponsored by the Grange. The evening was the highlight of the year for the Seniors who were deeply honored of their mothers and all the perfect paper plates which were served on every table. The highlight of the evening was the entertainment which displayed the talent of some of the mothers.

Baseball

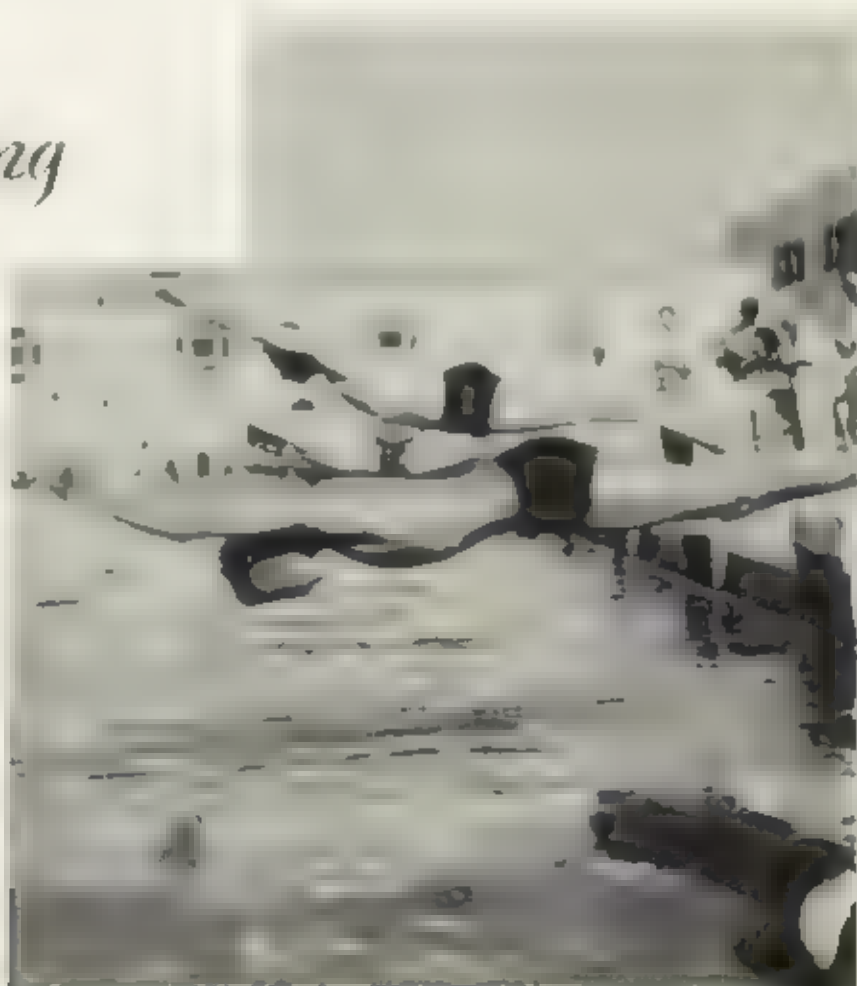

Although the baseball teams had a poor season in the winning bracket, they certainly didn't lack in sportsmanship. It is said that the hopes for next year's teams are running high as the summer season teams are in top shape

This year's swimming teams had a moderately successful season. The varsity squad had a very good year in comparison to previous teams, and they are very proud to have finished in fourth place in Sunset League competition. The co-captains of the varsity squad were Bill Webber and Jim Fulton

Swimming

At the sound of the starter's gun the contestants are off.

Track

La Habra High School is a just right to be proud of its 1956 track team. For the first time in the school's history, one of its sport teams has secured a varsity first place in the Sunset League. Last year, the varsity track team won the first place in the league. This year, the team won the first place in the league. Coach Willie Wilson remarked, "They're the greatest."
